

Beginners' Golf Camp

Have you always wanted to learn to play golf but didn't want to spend outrageous amounts of money for private lessons from a pro? Here is your answer! You will join Coach Lumsden at Kingsbury School to work on the basics of golf. Starting with proper grip, swing, and set-up, you will learn what it takes to hit the links. Lessons will take place on the Kingsbury campus and will culminate with a round of nine holes of golf at Mulberry Hills Golf Course on Friday. Clubs will be available for instruction, and rental clubs will be available at the course. Tuition includes all greens fees and range balls when necessary. This camp is open to anyone interested in learning to golf. From the first time player to the long time player who is looking to improve his/her game. Find out what all the excitement is about! Learn to play golf!
